This month we will look at actual cases that went before the EEOC. Our fun and provocative approach will show you the facts behind the case and how and why the EEOC made their decision. You will gain insight in to how the policy-makers look at issues that are relevant to your workplace. Participating in this presentation will be current and former OCEDC Board Members including Faris Alami, Mike Lowe, Cathy Sanchez, Kiesha Speech, and Rick Weaver. Bill Mann, a former Michigan Department of Civil Rights and now working for the Oakland County government will share what the courts and the EEOC normally look for when accepting and prosecuting a case.
